

Hello!

Now it is time to get busy with this. I have lined up a judge for our cook-off. I am working with an organization that does cook-offs professionally. The organization is CASI and we are on the calendar. I have setup the date for April 21st. I would like to get out into the community and start shaking the trees at some of the restaurants in the area to come in and join in for the fun. We now need to get into the advertising of this. Also if you know anyone that is interested in participating then please tell them about this.

Here is some of the info on the contest.

Date: April 21, 2012

Time: 8am - until?

Judging time: 1 pm.

Entry fee: $20/team

Location: Pine Forest High School Practice Field East of Football Stadium.

cost to come to the event: TBD maybe free.

I am looking at getting the Jazz Band to Play during the event and hopefully one or two other independent bands to play also. I would like to also open up the concession stand to sell burgers, dog, fries, candy and drinks during the event.

As far as the Bike rally goes. Have not had any luck getting Clubs or Organizations interested in coming. Alternative things to do with this event would be maybe a family/organization fun day competition, doing fun and games such as egg toss, 5k fun run walk, football toss, basketball, volleyball, softball or anything else that might bring in people to competition.

Any and all help will be appreciated. I will be setting up a meeting soon so we can all get together and try to get this planned to make it the best possible fundraiser.
